

DSS_OnStar_FINAL

(Music playing)

(IMAGE)

A woman's fingers is seen pushing a button on a rear-view mirror.

Next, we see a man driving his vehicle in city traffic.

Following that, we see a young couple seated on a sofa looking at a laptop screen together, and then an older couple looking at a smartphone screen together.

(Text on screen)

Drive Safe & Save™ OnStar® Setup

(Disclaimer on screen)

Availability and discounts may vary by state and coverages selected.

A discount may not be available in California and North Carolina, depending on individual facts and circumstances.

You must maintain both your active OnStar plan and monthly OnStar Vehicle Diagnostics to stay enrolled in Drive Safe & Save.

OnStar and the OnStar emblem are registered trademarks of OnStar, LLC.

(Text on screen)

Enroll in Drive Safe & Save.

(Announcer: Male voice)

Combining Drive Safe & Save with your OnStar system puts you in control of your car insurance. And it's so simple. First, to enroll, just log in to your State Farm account online or contact your State Farm agent to enroll over the phone. Within 30 days of enrolling, activate your monthly OnStar vehicle diagnostics by pressing the blue OnStar button in your vehicle.

(IMAGE)

A woman is seen pushing a button on the rear-view mirror of her vehicle, and then a woman is seen seated by a window, looking at her smartphone. Next, a woman is seen driving.

(Text on screen)

Activate vehicle diagnostics.

You'll get about 5 percent off your car insurance.

(Announcer: Male voice)

What's next? Start saving.

You'll get about 5% off your car insurance just for signing up for Drive Safe & Save.

And then you could save even more depending on how you drive.

State Farm is here to help by providing all the discounts you qualify for, so enroll today.

(Text on screen)

Here to help life go right.®

State Farm logo

Statefarm.com/DriveSafeAndSave